[01] [Anonymous]; Professeurs De C.E.T. Qui N'ayant Pas Le Courage De Leurs Opinions, Se Sont Refugies Dans L'anonymat. Manuel de Destruction Civique. Paris: M.M., Unknown. 8vo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. [2], 1-69pp, [1], original paper covers. Small stain to upper cover, otherwise fairly bright and clean. The politics of education at French technical colleges, "l'ecole est le principal instrument de reproduction de l'ideologie bourgeoise ... le lycee puis l'universite produisent les cadres de cette societe capitaliste" [003239] £35.00

[02] [Churchill, Winston S. (Ed)] The British Gazette. London: H.M.S.O., 1926. First Edition. Atlas Folio. Unbound. Newspaper. Fair. Each 4pp. Eight issues (complete) of the government's newspaper during the British General Strike, edited by Winston Churchill. All browned with some minor chipping and tears, old folds, occasional light foxing. Number one torn and chipped with small amount of loss to text with some loss of sense, heavily repaired to inner blanks along central fold, number six chipped and torn to spine, number eight foxed to upper cover with old stamp adhered towards title. Numbers one and two are blank in the middle, first number as issued, second issue presumably an early issue (there is another issue of the second number with news on the middle pages). Woods, Bibliography of the Works of Sir Winston Churchill, (2nd ed.), page 382; Smith, Remember 1926: 6 [003242] £75.00

[03] [French Maoism] De Nouveau Dans La Kiosques La Cause Du Peuple. No Place: No Publisher, First Edition. 64mo (Oblong). Unbound. Sticker. Good+. Single sided printed sticker, approximately 95mm x 65mm in size, no publisher, no place (Paris?), n.d. probably late 1960's / early 1970's. Quite bright and clean. Presumably issued by one of many Maoist groups in France. Roughly translated it states 'back in the kiosks - the cause of the people' [003235] £12.00

[04] [Funeral Fan] Freedom Fighters - Compliments of Mutual Life Savings Life Insurance Co. (Home Office, Decatur, Ala.) And The People's Funeral Home Athens, Alabama. Decatur, Alabama: Mutual Savings Life Insurance Co., 1969. First Edition. 4to. Unbound. Fan. Good+. Double sided printed funeral fan, card size approximately 185mm x 195mm in size. Possibly slightly faded, rear browned, otherwise fairly clean. Front with images of J.F. Kennedy, R.F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, with a quote from each beneath, the reverse is a printed advert for a life insurance company and a funeral home in Athens, Alabama. The People's Funeral Home was established in 1965, traditionally serving the local black community, as indeed it still does today [003223] £75.00

London: ACME
Cards, First Edition. 32mo (Oblong).
Unbound.
Postcard.
Good+. Eleven postcards, approximately 155mm x

105mm in size, n.d, c.1990? All except one unused (see below). A set of eight published by ACME, of the women at the peace camps at Greenham Common; one published by P & J Willmott, Enterprise Postcards, 1990, of two children with an anti-nuclear sign; one by published by Leeds Postcards of a woman from Greenham after 'keening' at the Houses of Parliament; and one of a banner from Greenham, with an account to reverse of the woman's visit to the camps at Greenham. It is dated 2/12/[19]84, and she [Janet] notes that she and her friends "walked 9 miles around the fence which was tiring, but quite pleasant. There's still a lot of women staying there, most of them are really ordinary (unlike the impression you get from the papers), there are a lot of older women too. Everyone was nice to us, and gave us cups of tea" [003243] £25.00

[06] [London School of Economics] Small Collection of Pamphlets and Leaflets About the London School of Economics. London: Various, First Edition. Various. Paper Covers. Pamphlets / Leaflets. Good. Small collection of pamphlets / leaflets relating to the London School of Economics - 1. Clare Market Review, Vol. 62, No. 2, 49pp, [3], n.d.; 2. Link Arms With Our Comrades at LSE, [1]p, by the Revolutionary Socialist Student Federation, n.d.; 3. Report: Crisis at LSE, 5pp, [1], Socialists in Higher Education, 1969; 4. Exams!, [2]p, Socialist Society, n.d.; 5. L.S.E.'s New Director - A Report on Walter Adams, 18pp [of 19pp], [Members of the Labour and Socialist Societies of the LSE], [1966], lacking final leaf (the bulk of the appendix and the blank lower cover); 6. LSE - What it is: and how we fought it, [2], 24pp, [2], Agitator, 1967 and 7. Lessons from LSE: A Communist Perspective, 28pp, LSE Branch of the Communist Party, [1973] (Cope 3355). Mainly related to the protests of the late 1960's and especially the protests against the appointment of Walter Adams as Director of the LSE [003233] £50.00

[07] [Lottery Puffs] Five Lottery Puffs / Adverts. No Place: No Publisher, First Edition. Various. Unbound. Ephemera. Good. Five lottery puffs, various sizes - 1. The drift of this Ladder to well comprehend, Take a Paddy's advice, and begin at the end, approximately 95mm x 220mm in size, c.1810?, laid down with small amounts of loss; 2. Approximately 90mm x 150mm in size, small tear to right hand side; 3. How to Get up in the World, approximately 85mm x 185mm in size, slightly chipped to foot with tiny amounts of loss; 4. New Year's Grand State Lottery, approximately 110mm x 185mm in size, Middlewich (Cheshire), one or two spots of foxing and 5. New Lottery Scheme, approximately 95mm x 230mm in size, Manchester, c.1826?, lightly stained (announces that lotteries will cease for ever at the conclusion of the present Drawings, so probably 1826) [003237] £25.00

[08] [Medical Marijuana Poster] Ease the Pain! From Cancer, Arthritis, AIDS and Other Painful Conditions - Support Medical Marijuana. No Place: No Publisher, Unknown. Elephant Folio. Unbound. Poster. [09] [North Shields Mechanics Institution] Festival to Commemorate the Laying of the Foundation Stone of a New Tradesmen & Mechanics' Institution. North Shields: Tulloch, J.G., 1857. First Edition. 64mo (Oblong). Unbound. Ticket. Good+. Single sided printed ticket, approximately 110mm x 70mm in size. Lightly browned, otherwise quite bright and clean. Ticket to the festival commemorating the new Mechanics' Institute, at the Albion Assembly Rooms in North Shields, dated Tuesday, May 19th, 1857, with a quote by Tennyson to foot. The printer was J.[ohn] G.[raham] Tulloch, see Hunt, C.J., The Book Trade in Northumberland and Durham to 1860, page 90. The Mechanics Institute is located on Howard Street by the junction with Saville Street, North Shields. It was built 1857-1858, designed by John Johnstone, with possible later alterations by John Dobson. It became the first free library on Tyneside in January 1870, when the Mechanics Institute was amalgamated with the Literary and Philosophical Society collection. The laying of the foundation stone seems to have been quite a large event, with about six hundred people attending, and it being the subject of the best part of a page in the Illustrated London News, on May 30th, 1857 [003225] £45.00

[10] [Peace and Anti-War Society] Membership Certificate of a Peace and Anti-War Society. ill. Aikman, A.T. After Scott, W.B. No Place: No Publisher. First Edition. 8vo (Oblong). Unbound. Membership Certificate. Good. Single sided printed membership certificate, approximately 230mm x 200mm in size, n.p. but probably London, n.d. c1840? Browned, creased to top edge, small closed tear to centre of top edge just catching image but with no loss, light staining to right hand side. Membership certificate, though not filled in, for a peace and anti-war society, the object of which was to "diffuse information tending to show that war is inconsistent with the spirit of Christianity". The design was by W.[illiam] B.[ell] Scott, a Scottish artist and a friend of Rossetti's, and was engraved by A.[lexander] T. Aikman (see Benezit, volume one, page 12) [003230] £100.00

Gunpowder
AND FIREWORKS.

CAUTION!

Justices in Special Petty Sessions are authorised to license places for the making and keeping fireworks or other explosive preparations or compositions. They are also empowered to grant licenses to persons to sell fireworks. And it is enacted by statute that it shall not be lawful for any person to sell, or offer or expose to sale any firework without such license; and no such firework shall be sold to any person apparently under sixteen years of age, under a penalty of not exceeding five pounds for every offence. Persons making application for any such license, must give fourteen days' notice in writing of the intention to make the same, as also of the place or places proposed for the purposes aforesaid, to an overseer or churchwarden of the parish or place in which it is proposed to make or use any building or place for any of the purposes aforesaid, and must affix a like notice on the outside of the door, or the wall near the door of every church and of every chapel or place of worship in such parish, previously to the commencement of Divine service on a Sunday, ten days at least before the making of such application.

The Justices of the Ancient Town of Winchelsea have appointed the following days for holding Special Sessions at the Town Hall, viz.

Tuesday,	186	, at 12 o'clock	at noon.
Tuesday,	186	, ditto
Tuesday,	186	, ditto

All persons offending against the statutes are rendered liable to heavy penalties.

By order,
E. N. DAWES,

Winchelsea, 24th September, 1861. Clerk to the Justices.
