[01] [Anti Left Book Club]. Facts About the Left Book Club. London: Information Distributing Bureau, First Edition. 4to. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. [4]p, n.d. but c.1937. Slightly soiled and creased, but generally clean. Anti Left Book Club / anti-communist leaflet made up mainly of quotes, it exhorts at the end "Do we want relentless Civil War and an Atheist Dictatorship in England?" £25.00

[02] Big Flame - Merseyside Socialist Newspaper. Liverpool: Big Flame, First Edition. Elephant Folio. Unbound. Poster. Good. Single-sided printed poster, approximately 385mm x 510mm in size, n.d. c.1980? Very slightly browned, a few small nicks and chips to edges, with light creasing from old folds, but generally fairly bright and clean with attractive bold graphics. Big Flame was a socialist group (1970-1984), largely based on Merseyside, but with other regional groups. The name was taken from a television play written by Jim Allen and directed by Ken Loach. Although quite a small group, it produced a newspaper and a wide range of pamphlets £40.00

[03] [Carlile, Richard]; Westminster Election. A Correct Report of the Proceedings of the Meeting Held at the Crown and Anchor, Strand, on Monday, June 1, 1818, by that Part of the Electors of Westminster, Who Advocate Annual Parliaments, Universal Suffrage, and Vote by Ballot. London: R. Carlile, 1818. First Thus. 8vo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. 24pp, disbound. Slightly soiled, lightly browned and lightly foxed. Goldsmiths 22270 £50.00

[04] [Chile]. Solstice for the Freedom of Chile. London: Taller Ventana, First Edition. Atlas Folio. Unbound. Poster. Good. Single-sided printed poster, approximately 450mm x 635mm in size, n.d. c.1984? Slightly worn to edges, corners slightly creased, otherwise fairly bright and clean £20.00

[05] [Churchill, Winston S. (Ed)]. The British Gazette. London: H.M.S.O., 1926. First Edition. Atlas Folio. Unbound. Newspaper. Fair. Each 4pp. Eight issues (complete) of the government's newspaper during the British General Strike, edited by Churchill. All browned with some minor chipping, old folds, occasional light foxing. Number one torn and chipped with some loss, number two with an address in pen to head of first page. Numbers one and two are blank in the middle, first number as issued, second issue presumably an early edition. Woods (2nd ed.), page 382 £75.00

[06] [Communist International]. The Programme of the Communist International - Together with the Statutes of the Communist International. London: Modern Books Limited, 1932. Reprint. 8vo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. viii, 72pp, original paper covers. Oversize covers chipped to edges with some loss, small amount of loss to head of spine, internally quite bright and clean. Second impression, first was 1929 £10.00

[07] [Friendly Society Ephemera]. Wisbech Female Friendly Society Ephemera. Wisbech: John Leach, First Edition. 8vo (Oblong). Unbound. Ephemera. Good+. Three pieces of ephemera for the Wisbech Female Friendly

Society - 1. Advert for the annual meeting of the Society, n.d. c. 1840?, printed by John Leach in Wisbech; 2. Another smaller advert for the annual meeting of the society, c.1875; 3. A 'business' card for the Society, giving the date of the setting up of the Society (1796), c.1880 or perhaps later. All fairly bright and clean. BBTI gives a date for John Leach in Wisbech between 1839-1847. While Friendly Societies were quite common, "recruitment to female benefit societies remained small-scale ... According to the 1803-1804 returns only 5% of all benefit clubs were female and in these the average membership size was only two-thirds that of male clubs ... low earnings meant that for any female club to succeed payments had to be 'moderate'. At Wisbech's female friendly society early resignations by new members were common, due to the difficulty of paying the fees ... the attitude of husbands was critical: thus, one Mrs Beales resigned from the Wisbech Society due to 'her husband objecting to her being a member'" (Clark, British Clubs and Societies 1580-1800, page 364). Though as we can see here from the dates of printing, the Wisbech Society lasted a considerable length of time. It was significant enough to merit inclusion in Watson's 'Historical Account of the Ancient Town and Port of Wisbech' (1827) and the 'History of Wisbech' (1834) £95.00

[08] [General Strike Newspapers]. Collection of Eleven Newspapers from the General Strike. Various: Various, 1926. First Edition. Various. Unbound. Newspaper. Fair.
