Catalogue VI – Politics – February 2016

Cover art adapted from item 48

- 01. [Anarchism/Anarca-Feminism]. Zero - Anarchist/Anarca-Feminist Monthly. London: Zero Collective, 1977. First Edition. Elephant Folio. Unbound. Ex-Library. Good. Numbers one to seven (of eight?), 1977-1978. Issues one to five each 12pp, issues six and seven are 16pp. Ex-library with ink stamp and blind stamp to lower cover. Creased, several small nicks and tears, folded in half, some light browning. I had thought there were only seven issues of this newspaper, but an eighth is promised in issue seven and the LSE has eight issues in its COPAC listing (nowhere else has more than seven) £45.00

- 02. [Anarchism]. Freedom Anarchist Pamphlets - The Paris Commune - The Defence of Louise Michel. London: Freedom Press, First Edition. Folio. Disbound. Pamphlet. Good. 8pp, original paper covers, n.d but 1971. Corners chipped, small splits to spine, couple of small tears, browned. Includes articles on 'The Paris Commune and the Anarchist Movement' and Kropotkin's 'The Theory of the State and the Practice of the Commune'. One of a series published in Freedom, this being number eight £10.00

- 03. [Anarchism]. Freedom - Anarchist News and Views - Volume 65 - Numbers 1-24. London: Freedom Press, 2004. First Edition. Elephant Folio. Disbound. Newspaper. Good+. Twenty-four issues (complete) for 2004, each issue 8pp. Very minor wear, lightly browned to edges, folded in the middle, otherwise quite bright and clean £45.00

04. [Angry Brigade]. Conspiracy Notes. London: Stoke Newington Eight Defence Group, First Edition. 4to. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. Two issues (of four?), issue one and four, n.d. but 1972. Issue One is 20pp, Issue Four 16pp. Original paper covers, slightly soiled and lightly browned, especially to head of issue one. Uncommon, BL, Cam, Bishopsgate and Leeds have records on COPAC, without any indication of numbers held (though the record is seemingly based on issue four). As far as I am aware no further issues were printed £50.00

05. [Committee of Secrecy]. Observations on the Report of the Committee of Secrecy. London: J. Roberts, 1715. First Edition. Folio. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. 26pp (final leaf misnumbered as 16), original paper covers, stitched. Upper cover slightly soiled, creased to edges, very lightly browned, small faint blind stamp to foot of upper cover, extensive marginal notes in an old hand to the first fifteen pages, otherwise clean. Pamphlet examining the Report of the Committee of Secrecy (Kress 2973), which was chaired by Walpole, and reported on developments after the Treaty of Utrecht.

Goldsmiths 5219 and Kress 2969 £50.00

06. [Counterculture]. Idiot International (Four issues). London: Idiot International Publications, 1970. First Edition. Elephant Folio. Paper Covers. Newspaper. Good. Four issues (of nine); Issues two, three, five and nine, issues two and three each 20pp, issues five and nine each 24pp. Issue five is worn with a few small tears and some pen marking to lower cover, otherwise fairly bright and clean. Includes articles on People's Democracy, Squatting and the Kabouters £30.00

07. [Elections]. All the Proceedings in Relation to the Aylesbury-Men, Committed by the House of Commons: And the Report of the Lords Journal, and Reports of the Conferences, and of The Free Conference Etc Etc.. London: Edward Jones, 1704. First Edition. 4to. Disbound. Pamphlet. Good. 83pp, [1], disbound. Text is browned and lightly foxed throughout, previous owners name to half-title. Includes: 'The case between Sir Francis Goodwin, and Sir John Fortescue, in the reign of K. James I. as it stands upon the journal of the House of Commons', with a separate titlepage (pp.59-83). ESTC gives date of publication as 1705, with half-title as called for. "Ashby v. White (1703) ... It concerns the right to vote and misfeasance of a public officer ... Mr Ashby was prevented from voting at an election by the misfeasance of a constable, Mr White, on the apparent pretext that he was not a settled inhabitant" (Wikipedia) £50.00

08. [Elections]. The Case of John Trenchard and James Smyth Esquires. No Place: No Publisher, First Edition. Folio. Unbound. Broadsheet. Good. Printed double-sided broadsheet, drop-head title and docket title, no publisher, no place, no date, ESTC suggests London, 1722. Browned and chipped to edges with small amounts of loss, a few spots of foxing, old ink number to top corners. Relates to the election of Members of Parliament for Taunton in 1721, both Trenchard and Smyth (Smith) were duly returned. Trenchard is best known for his opposition to a standing army, against which he wrote several pamphlets. BL only on ESTC £150.00

09. [Elections]. Case of the Wells Election, 1765 WITH Case Respecting the Return of a Member to Serve in Parliament for the City of Wells. No Place: No Publisher, . First Edition. 4to. Unbound. Pamphlets. Good+. 3pp, [1] and 4pp, unbound, no place or date, ESTC suggests London, 1766 for both. Both with drop-head title and a docket title to final leaf (trimmed with loss to second mentioned). Lightly browned, faint blue number to head of both. The second mentioned is an answer to the first, noting that it was a paper printed and distributed by [Peter] Taylor, this being a reply on the part of Mr [Robert] Child. Uncommon, first found at BL only on ESTC, second at BL and Bodleian only. (See item 10 below) £300.00

10. [Elections]. The Poll Taken at the Town-Hall, in the City or Borough of Wells, on Thursday the 26th of December, 1765 for the Election of a Member to Serve in Parliament, Pursuant to the Sheriff's Precept, Directed to the Mayor, Masters and Burgesses Etc Etc..

No Place: No Publisher, First Edition. Folio. Unbound. Pamphlet. Good. 3pp, [1], disbound, drop-head title with docket title to final leaf. Very lightly browned, piece excised for ease of binding to foot of gutter edge (not affecting text). Poll book relating to the Wells election of 1765 between Mr [Peter] Taylor and Mr [Robert] Child. Taylor had been a deputy paymaster in Germany and returned to England in 1763 "with a large fortune and a bad reputation ... But his strongest ambition was to represent Wells itself, and when the sitting Member, Lord Digby, Holland's nephew, was given a British peerage, Taylor declared himself a candidate. His opponent, Robert Child, was brought in by the Tudway family, in collaboration with the dean of Wells and Lord Digby. Taylor hoped that Holland would support him, but Digby was anxious that Holland should take no part against the dean. The campaign lasted several months, and developed into a contest of great ferocity ... When the election came on, Taylor's party was able to gain possession of the writ, since Taylor's son was sheriff of the county. Rival polls were held and Taylor returned. The House unseated him, 15 Jan. 1766, and his petition was rejected. He stood again for Wells in 1768, but his opponents had taken advantage of the interval to create a large number of honorary freemen, and he was defeated after another expensive contest" (Namier and Brooke, The History of Parliament: The House of Commons, 1754-1790) (See Item 9 above) £195.00

11. [Equal Pay for Women]. Equal Pay Now for Women Workers - Trafalgar Square Rally 18th May 1969. No

Place: No Publisher, 1969. First Edition. 12mo (Oblong). Unbound. Leaflet. Very Good. A printed single-sided sheet, approximately 345mm x 90mm in size, an armband for the rally. A scarce survivor £15.00

12. [Equal Pay for Women]. Public Rally! Equal Pay Now - 1970, Not 1975!. London: No. 8 Committee of the Confederation, 1970. First Edition. 4to. Unbound. Leaflet. Good. Printed double-sided leaflet, approximately 220mm x 305mm in size. Browned and creased, especially to head, couple of small nicks and tears to head, otherwise clean £10.00

13. [Equal Pay for Women]. Women Demand Equal Rights - Mass Rally Trafalgar Square Sunday 18th May 1969. No Place: No Publisher, 1969. First Edition. 4to. Unbound. Leaflet. Good+. Single-sided printed leaflet for the Equal Pay rally in Trafalgar Square, approximately 205mm x 255mm in size. Slightly creased otherwise quite bright and clean £10.00

14. [Essex Poll Book]. An Exact List of the Names of the Gentlemen and Other Freeholders That Voted for Knights of the Shire for the County of Essex. As the Same Was Taken the 27th March, 1722. London: No Publisher, 1724. First Edition. 8vo. Full Calf. Good+. 171pp, [1]; (A-X4, Y2). Contemporary calf, later rebaked and recornered, spine in six panels with modern title label to second panel, double fillet border to covers. Slightly rubbed to extremities, internally several ink notes (mainly adding up of votes) to text, lightly browned but generally clean. Previous owner's name (Rob[er]t. Abdy) to ffeep. Bound with several leaves of blanks to front and rear, with some ink annotations to rear blanks (names and constituencies). Sir Robert Abdy 1688-1748, was "returned unopposed for his county as a Tory, voting against the Administration in every recorded division. He was to have taken part in a Jacobite rising in Essex, planned to coincide with a French landing in February 1744, was one of the six Tory Members to whom the military details of the scheme were communicated, and was referred to by the Pretender as one of his principal advisers in England" (Sedgwick (Ed), The History of Parliament 1715-1754). The candidates were The Lord Castlemain, (Sir Richard Child), William Harvey and Robert Honeywood, with Harvey being elected. Rare, no copies located on ESTC £250.00

15. [Essex Poll Books]. An Exact List of the Names of the Gentleman and Other Freeholders That Voted for Knight of the Shire for the County of Essex ... As the Same Was Taken the 31st of May, 1715 WITH The Poll for Knights of the Shire to Represent the County of Essex Etc Etc.. Various: Various, 1715. First Edition. 8vo. Quarter Calf and Boards. Good. Four works bound in one - 1. Blackborne, William, "An Exact List of the Names of the Gentleman and Other Freeholders That Voted for Knight of the Shire for the County of Essex, (In the Room of Thomas Middleton, esq. Deceas'd) As the Same Was Taken the 31st of May, 1715", London, 1715, 120pp; 2. Bramfill, Champion,

"The Poll for Knights of the Shire to Represent the County of Essex; Taken at Chelmsford, on Tuesday the 7th Day of May, 1734", published by M. Downing, London, 1734, [2], 181pp, [1]; 3. "The Case of Charles Gray and Samuel Savill Esq. on Their Petition Complaining of an Undue Election and Return of Members of Parliament, for the Borough of Colchester, London, 1741, 3pp, [1] and 4. "The Poll for Members of Parliament for the Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex. Taken Before Jeremiah Daniel Esq. Mayor of the Said Borough, on Thursday May 7 1741 and Continued Before Robert Price Esq. Deputy Mayor, on the Friday and Saturday Following", Ipswich, 1741, 50pp, [2]. Bound together in later quarter calf and marbled paper over boards, spine in six panels, title label to second panel. Rebacked with original spine laid on, corners repaired. The first mentioned stained to about a third of the page from title, but not too obtrusive, gradually fading to nothing with tiny amount of loss to top corner of first three signatures; otherwise some very minor browning, generally quite bright and clean. First mentioned is not found on ESTC; second with eight locations but only Yale in the US; third is at the National Archives only and the fourth at the BL and Bodleian only £395.00

16. [Housing]; Rust, William and the Communist Party. Houses for the Millions WITH A Memorandum on Housing. ill. Brook. London: Communist Party, First Edition. 12mo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. Two pamphlets on housing - 1. Rust, William, "Houses for the Millions", 1945, 16pp and 2. Communist Party, "A Memorandum on Housing", 1944, 40pp. Original paper covers with designs by 'Brook', staples rusted, the Rust pamphlet is lightly browned, otherwise clean £12.00

17. [Labour Party]. Towards Tomorrow - Industrial Democracy; Public Ownership - The Next Step and Science and Socialism. London: The Labour Party, 1948. First Edition. 8vo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. Three pamphlets (of four) in the 'Towards Tomorrow' series, n.d.

but 1948; 1. 'Industrial Democracy', 16pp; 2. 'Public Ownership - The Next Step', 16pp and 3. Calder, Ritchie, 'Science and Socialism', 16pp. Original paper covers, slightly rubbed. Number one has a small nick to fore-edge of upper cover, number two has a previous owner's name to head of upper cover. All published in 1948, carrying on from the 'Labour Discussion' series. The BL has four pamphlets under its COPAC listing, but no indication of titles. Labour Party Bibliography 48/14, 48/19 and 48/21 respectively £15.00

18. [London Housing]. Small Collection of Pamphlets on Housing in London. London: Various, First Edition. 8vo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. Six pamphlets on housing in London - 1. Bramley, Ted, "Light on London - The Battle for Homes", c.1945, 64pp; 2. Communist Party, "London's Battle for Homes", c.1955, 16pp; 3. Bevan, Aneurin, "London's Housing", c.1946, 32pp; 4. Lambeth Council Tenants' Association, "How to Stop Rising Rents for Council and Private Tenants", 1957, 16pp; 5. St. Pancras Council Tenants Association, "Stop the St. Pancras Evictions!", 1960, 12pp and 6. London District Communist Party, "Bramley's Speech at the Old Bailey - The Trial of the London Communists Arrested for Action on Behalf of London's Homeless, September, 1946", 1946, 16pp. Original covers, slightly browned and lightly faded, internally a couple of the pamphlets have the occasional marginal line or underlining in pen, but generally clean £30.00

19. [Mackworth, Sir Humphrey, Attrib.]. Pro Aris & Focis: or a Vindication of the Proceedings of the Commons on the Writs of Habeas Corpus and Writ of Error in the Case of the Aylesbury Men. In a Letter from a Member of Parliament to a Friend in the Country. No Place: No Publisher, 1705. First Edition. 4to. Disbound. Pamphlet. Good. 4pp, disbound. Text is browned, cropped at head catching page numbers. Attributed to Humphrey Mackworth, relating to the Aylesbury Election. ESTC T27263 £30.00

20. [Mackworth, Sir Humphrey]. A Letter from a Member of Parliament to His Friend in the Country - Giving a Short Account of the Proceedings of the Tackers, Upon the Occasional and Self-Denying Bills the Act of Security in Scotland and Other Occurrences in the Last Session of Parliament. London: John Nutt, 1705. The Fifth edition, six locations worldwide on ESTC. ESTC T37827 £30.00

21. [Motler, Leonard Augustine] (Ed). Satire - A Paper of Social Criticism - Eleven Issues. ill. Brownwilly; Rodo et al. Manchester: Blackfriars Press, 1917. First Edition. 4to. Paper Covers. Magazine. Good. Eleven issues (of seventeen); numbers six to thirteen and fifteen to seventeen, 1917-1918. Original paper covers, each issue is 8pp.

Some creasing to corners and some minor chipping, often lightly browned, one issue (number nine) very browned, occasional light foxing but generally fairly clean. Interesting cover art, often by BrownWilly, but also other artists, many illustrations internally (unusual for an Anarchist publication), including some by 'Rodo' who was Ludovic Pissarro (son of Camille and brother of Lucien). Motler and Scates (the manager) were both deaf mutes. Satire first appeared in December of 1916 and was eventually shut down by the authorities in 1918. It includes probably the earliest Anarchist denunciation of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia in December 1917 (issue thirteen), "The Russian Revolution is running agley. These little things happen when the people permit new rulers to pose as their saviours, instead of saving themselves by running the country on their own" (page two, December 1917). Uncommon, COPAC shows at BL and LSE (lacking numbers two, twelve and thirteen). Warwick Guide 3091 £300.00

22. [Poster - Palestine]. Victory to the Palestinian People. No Place: No Publisher, Unknown. Double Elephant. Unbound. Poster. Good. Single-sided printed poster, approximately 565mm x 890mm in size, n.d. mid 1970's? Browned, small grease stain to left hand side, creased towards foot, small holes to corners where once pinned up, otherwise clean £30.00

23. [Squamish Five Poster]. Unity for Freedom - Free the Five...Free Us All. ?Vancouver: Free the Five Support Group, First Edition. 4to. Unbound. Poster. Good. Single-sided printed poster, n.d. probably 1983, approximately 210mm x 275mm in size. Patches of discolouring from tape to corners, otherwise fairly bright and clean. Also included is a 'Free the Five Newsletter', number seven, [4]p from December 1983. The Squamish, or Vancouver Five were 'urban guerillas' active in Canada in the early 1980's, who favoured 'propaganda by the deed' £30.00

24. [Women's National Advisory Committee of the Communist Party] and London Women's Parliament. Nurseries After the War WITH You Can Get a War-time Nursery in Your District. London: Communist Party and The London Women's Parliament, 1944. First Edition. 12mo. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. Two pamphlets - 'Nurseries After the War', published by the Communist Party, 1944, 12pp WITH 'You Can Get A War-Time Nursery in Your District', published by the London Women's Parliament, n.d. but c.1944, 16pp, [2] plates. Staples rusted, some minor wear, first mentioned creased, but both generally clean. COPAC shows first mentioned at BL, NLW, LSE, TCD and Nottingham; and second at BL, LSE, TCD and Bishopsgate £12.00

25. Ali, Tariq et al (Eds). The Red Mole. ill. Steadman, Ralph et al. London: Relgocrest Ltd., 1970. First Edition. Elephant Folio. Paper Covers. Newspaper. Good+. Numbers one to sixty-four (of sixty five) of The Red Mole (which developed out of the reincarnated Black Dwarf, then became Red Weekly) WITH fourteen 'Broadsheets/Supplements' and a poster, 1970-73. Generally 12pp, Vol 2, No. 5 is 16pp (an interview with John Lennon), number twenty-seven is 16pp, from number forty-seven they become 8pp and graphically much less interesting, the broadsheets are 4pp. Generally in very good condition, a few with tiny nicks and tears, some minor browning, one of the broadsheets has a crude sellotape repair catching text but not affecting sense. The earlier issues have interesting covers, with one by Ralph Steadman and several by 'Till' (presumably Peter Till). The Red Mole was the newspaper of the International Marxist Group, British section of the Fourth International. Lots of interesting articles with many on the north of Ireland, workers control, armed struggle in the developing world etc. COPAC shows the BL, Cam, Manchester, NLS and LSE all have complete runs (possibly others but no edition numbers shown). An unusual opportunity to purchase a very good run of this important Trotskyist paper. Warwick Guide 2951 £350.00

26. Bradlaugh, Charles. The Radical Programme. London: Freethought Publishing Company, 1885. First Edition. 8vo. Disbound. Pamphlet. Good. 16pp, disbound. Lightly browned, very lightly soiled, generally clean, final page is a list of works by Bradlaugh £10.00

27. Brown, J. Heudebert (Designed by). From Beneath the Keyboard - A Collection of Stories. London: Hooligan Press, 1987. First Edition. 4to. Card Covers. Pamphlet. Very Good. ISBN: 1869802055. 32pp, original card covers. Very slightly rubbed, otherwise bright and clean. Anarchist short stories and poetry, not on COPAC £10.00

28. Christie, Stuart (Ed). The Cienfuegos Press Anarchist Review - Volume One, Number Five. Sanday: Cienfuegos Press, 1980. First Edition. Folio. Card Covers. Good+. ISBN: 03097285. 115pp, [5], original card covers. Slightly rubbed to extremities, internally bright and clean. Cover art by Flavio Costantini. Patten, 'Islands of Anarchy', A47 £30.00

29. Christie, Stuart and Meltzer, Albert (Eds). Black Flag - Bulletin of the Anarchist Black Cross. London: Albert Meltzer, 1971. First Edition. 4to and Folio. Paper Covers. Pamphlet. Good. A good, but incomplete, run of Black Flag, 1971 to 2002, it was slightly irregular in both its publishing dates and its numbering style... Vol 2, No.1 (Jan 1971); Vol 2, No.5 (May 1971); Vol 2, No.6 (June 1971); Vol 2, No.7 (July/August 1971); Vol 2, No.8 (November 1971); Vol 2, No.10 ('first copy of 1972'); Vol 2, No.12 (June 1972); Vol 2, No.13 (July 1972); Vol 2, No.14 (October 1972); Vol 3, No.1 (March 1973) - Vol 3, No.19 (April 1975) inclusive; Vol 4, No.1 (May 1975) - Vol 4, No.1 (May 1975); Vol 4, No.2 (June 1975); Vol 4, No.4 (Sept/Oct 1975) - Vol IV, No.15 (1977) inclusive; Vol V, No.1 (1977) - Vol V, No.13 (Jan 1980) inclusive; Vol VI, No.1 (March 1980) - Vol VI, No.12 (June/July 1982) inclusive; Vol VII, No.1 (Oct 1982); Vol VII, No.2 (with 2a-2f); Vol VII, No.3 (with 3a-3g); Vol VII, No.4 (with 4a-4e); Vol VII, No.5 (with 5a-5g); Vol VII, No.6 (with 6a-6g); Vol VII, No.7 (with 7a, 7c-e) - [Now numbered, starting at number 124] (Jan 1985); 124-137; 139-143; 145-153; 155-158; 160-183; 185-202; [Magazine format]; 203 (Autumn 1993) - 205; 207; 208; 214; 218, 219; 221 and 222 (c. 2002). c.193 issues, various sizes, formats, pagination etc. Some creasing, small tears, browning etc, but generally clean, occasional ex-library copy with stamps. Offered as is, without any guarantee of completeness of individual issues (but as far as I can tell they are complete). Three locations on COPAC, NLS seems to have one issue, Exeter with a few more and Leeds has an incomplete run of Vols 2 and 3. Noyce describes it as "valuable for its coverage of the Spanish resistance to the Franco regime, as well as for its good theoretical articles. Meltzer's articles on British anarchist history in the 1975 issues are especially valuable". Noyce 105 £450.00

Spots of light foxing, small tear to middle at fore-edge, otherwise fairly bright and clean. Programme for a lecture at the New Islington Hall, Ancoats, Manchester, by Princess (presumably Sophie, but possibly Alexandra) Kropotkin about Russia, with violin recitals. Lower cover (shown in picture) with attractive head piece by Walter Crane over 'Free Russia' headline with poems by William Watson underneath. Uncommon, not on COPAC (though Manchester does have the programme for the lecture in 1910 by Princess Kropotkin on the Russian Village Community). Kropotkin himself had also lectured at the Ancoats Brotherhood set up by Charles Rowley (See Waters, British Socialists and the Politics of Popular Culture) £30.00

48. Steele, James; [Cruden, Robert Lunan]. Conveyor. ill. Gomez, Helios. London: Martin Lawrence Ltd., 1935. First Edition. 8vo. Hardback. Good / Fair. 222pp, original cloth in DJ. DJ chipped with loss to spine ends and top edge of upper panel, corners slightly chipped, lightly browned. The spine of the book is faded, pages very lightly browned, otherwise quite clean. 'Conveyor' is a "crudely fictionalized report on working conditions in Henry Ford's River Rouge Plant. Jim Brogan, an 'average worker', who votes for Hoover and hates the Reds, at first quits his auto plant job because of the speed-up, but is unable to find other work.

After he and his wife lose the company house that they have been buying at exorbitant interest rates, they both go out to work. Jim finds that the 'River Rohte' Plant puts out its production under the pressure of a frantic speed-up of the assembly line, disregard of safety regulations, and strict surveillance by the 'servicemen' (labour spies). When the men in Jim's room spontaneously rebel, the servicemen beat them up, Jim being injured so badly that he is taken to the hospital. Upon leaving, he decides that he must help the Communist who has been quietly organizing an auto union. Jim's conversion has come the hard way" (Rideout, The Radical Novel in the United States, page 181). James Steele is a pseudonym for Robert Lunan Cruden, who was once an automobile factory mechanic. Anderson, quoted in Andrews' 'Michigan in Literature', calls it the "most clearly proletarian novel to come out of the automobile industry in the [1930s]". The first UK edition with the attractive dust jacket (different to the US edition) which is illustrated by the anarcho-communist Helios Gomez. COPAC shows at BL, NLS, NLW, Ox and TCD. Rideout 181; Seidman S378; Beasecker C-198a (erroneously attributing publication to Lawrence and Wishart) and Prestridge 80 £150.00
